W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling Names Ryan Heath Project Manager/Estimator

W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling has announced that Ryan Heath has been named project manager/estimator.

Heath has been in the plumbing and HVAC industries for more than 10 years with extensive experience in large military and hotel new construction projects.

“Ryan’s background in both estimating and project management are key to our company’s growing ability to handle large plumbing construction jobs,” said Kathryn “Kitty” Maloney-Langmade, president of W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling. “We continue to expand our design-build capabilities and Ryan helps strengthen our team.”

Heath is a Surprise resident.

Since 1964, W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling has been a leading plumbing and HVAC contractor in the greater metropolitan Phoenix area. Working with many of the largest general contractors, the company has provided exemplary design build plumbing, from tenant improvement to complex multi-story projects that include many of the most prominent buildings in the Valley.

Current projects for W.J. Maloney include the new Chicago Cubs Spring Training Facility in Mesa, the Veteran’s Administration Southeast Healthcare Clinic in Gilbert, Phase IV of CityScape

Phoenix, the Sky Train Project at Sky Harbor International Airport and the Mariposa Land Port of Entry expansion near Nogales.

Recently completed projects include Phases I, II and III of CityScape Phoenix, the Orthopedic and Spine Inpatient Surgical (OASIS) Hospital in Phoenix and a major solar thermal project at the University of Arizona in Tucson.

W.J. Maloney Plumbing also provides extensive commercial and residential service, maintenance and repair, and is Small Business Enterprise (SBE) and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) certified. For more information, call (602) 944-5516 or visit
